Motion for Reconsideration
Under Fed R. Civ. P. 5.(a).

Per M. E. L.
DEPUTY CLERK

Background, On February 25, 2011 Norman H. Shelton, an inmate confined in the United States penitentiary, Lewisburg (USP Lewisburg) Pennsylvania, filed the above-captioned. Bivens action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. He raised claim of deliberate indifference to his safety and excessive use of force with regarding his resulting medical care, being refused, and events surrounding an alleged August 30, 2009, assault upon him by his cellmate, and claims of racial discrimination by staff and complained of various forms of mistreatment, including corporal punishment, the use of restraints harassment, and being deprived of water, lights, and sleep.

Statement of Order, from the courts on August 10, 11, Courts review of plaintiff's amended complaints reveals that plaintiff's second amended complaint (Doc. 60), is a duplicate copy of the first three pages of plaintiff's first amended complaint (Doc. 58). The Courts stricken (27) defendants who are now retaliating against plaintiff, laughing at plaintiff calling him dumb and giving him the middle finger. A lawyer would not have missed or made such a big error in this case.

1.) Discussion,

Now that the (27) defendants were dismissed from this case, the absence of justice in which have descend to the level of unreasonableness.

-leness, the inappropriate excessive use of force indistinguishable retaliation, intimidation and lack of duty of care, in-adequate treatment and constitutional violation, the actions of these officers show their lack of responsibility of shaping, developing and improving the procedures in-which they all by-pass the sense and simple terms of life and justice.

2.) plaintiff moves this honorable Court to reimbursement of the exhibits in documents plaintiff mailed in to this honorable Court? Defendant Bledsoe, young, trate, Hudson, perrin should also be placed back in the pending case because they all was give foreseeable risk of harm and turn around and placed plaintiff in a cell again on Aug. 26, 2009, and the gang member jumped on him from behind. "plaintiff was forced by % Raup and % Zieder, plaintiff's prays that this honorable Court replace named defendants back on defendant list.

3.) Question, plaintiff wants to know can he re-file a new complaint on all the other defendants that was dismissed from plaintiff docket case?

4.) Plaintiff also move this court to Order Dismissed defendants to stop harassing plaintiff, by spiting in his face because they are off this case.

Plaintiff prays that this honorable Court remove plaintiff from this institution and allow plaintiff a lawyer.
